

It all starts with a few stalks of Aloe vera.

The stalk is peeled to reveal the gelatinous pulp.

Delicious Aloe gelatin pulp is ready for juicing.

The Aloe vera juice ready to be carted around town.

Customers are lining up for a sip!

“Yummmm!” Aloe vera juice is good for health and the complexion.

Delicious Aloe juice is enjoyed by at least 50 families in Kalpitiya, Sri Lanka.

The juice cart is an offshoot of the MFF Small Grants Facility Project that began in 2008.
